

St Theresa's Catholic Primary School is a School which operates with the consent of the Catholic Archbishop of Melbourne and is owned, operated and governed by Melbourne Archdiocese Catholic Schools Ltd (MACS), where formation and education are based on the principles of Catholic doctrine, and where the teachers are outstanding in true doctrine and uprightness of life.

Members of the School Advisory Council

Serving on the School Advisory Council of a Catholic school is a form of Church lay ministry. It is a response to the call to support the local Catholic Parish and School communities in a particular way. It is also a means for members of our community to share their skills and talents for the common good. A well-functioning Council provides rich sources of wisdom and insight as well as a means of strengthening community links and potential for partnerships.

St Theresa's School Advisory Council is as follows

Fr. Barry Hughes - Parish Priest (ex officio)

Robert Macklin - Principal (ex officio)

Sabrina Cornally, Georgia Traill, Paul Edwards, Danial Repp and Tim Everett - parents, guardians, carers of children attending the school

Rebecca Delving - parishioner

Marie Gamwell - Deputy Principal/staff member

At the Principal's discretion members of the school staff and the Business Manager may be invited from time to time to attend meetings depending on the content of the agenda.

Child Safe Standards

Adherence to the School's child safe standards must be at the forefront of any appointment process. Council members must have both a police check and a Working with Children check and must sign the school child safe standard agreement.
